79th Annual Surgery Conference: Advances in the Management of Pancreatic Diseases
June 9-10, 2016
Radisson Blu - Mall of America

This 79th Annual two-day course is designed to enable surgeons, gastroenterologists, researchers and other healthcare professionals to better identify, evaluate and treat diseases of the pancreas through presentations and case discussions by individual experts in specialties involved in the care of patients with pancreatic diseases.

Credit Types Available: AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ and MOC Self-Assessment

KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS

E. Starr Judd Lecture:
Marc Besselink, MD, PhD
Hepato-Pancreato-Biliary Surgery,
Academic Medical Center Amsterdam, Netherlands

Owen H. Wangensteen Research Lecture:
Markus Lerch, MD
Department of Medicine,
University of Greifswald, Germany

Stay & Play!!
Reserve your room at the Radisson Blu - Mall of America by May 11

Register by May 10 to receive the discounted rate!
www.cme.umn.edu/surgery